NEWS NOTES

OF BEULAH

Special to The Journal.

Beulah, April 27.—Crops in this section are looking well. The effects of the recent rain is shown on every hand and everybody has taken advantage of the cloudy weather since the rain and the result is a large acreage of sweet potatoes, tomatoes, cabbage and other plants all growing nicely.

In looking around the settlement last Sunday I was surprised at the number of new pieces of land that have been gotten under cultivation this spring. Every one seems to want a little more land to work and there appears to be a general desire to farm more and not depend so much on public work for a living. That is as it should be. The land will take care of us if we will take care of it.

Sorry to learn that Mr. Victor Rosemond has been laid up the greater part of the month with a lame back but he is some better now. One thing he can congratulate himself on, he has a nice large garden and truck patch to draw on for market and home use, so keeping the wolf from the door is not giving him any trouble.

One of our neighbors grows very eloquent in discussing the new railroad for Pensacola. He says it will cause the city to double in population in two years and then we will have the best country on earth. Of course he means Beulah.

Rev. Shelby held services at the Varn convent camp last Sunday evening at 3 o'clock.

King Hirst of the Bay, is out visiting friends in the neighborhood. He has had a long spell of sickness but is getting better now.

Mr. Bluet of the colony at Eight-Mile Creek was here last Sunday looking around and getting acquainted with the folks. He is an American and says he gets lonesome out there among the Germans.

Thad Busby, who has been at work in Mississippi for a long time spent one night with his uncle, A. J. Busby, and family. He is a son of T. J. Busby of East Bay. Come again, Thad, when you can stay long enough to see your friends.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.

Dress Well!

To dress well should be every man's ambition. Few men ever succeed in business who look shabby.

BOXING AND WRESTLING BOUTS

MEN OF THE FLEET WILL ENGAGE IN SPORTS AT OPERA HOUSE SATURDAY NIGHT.

An athletic meet, and one of more than usual interest, will occur Saturday night, when a number of athletic events will be pulled off at the Pensacola opera house. These will be between the men of the ships composing the North Atlantic fleet, and there will no doubt be a large crowd of men from the ships present. The meet will consist of six boxing bouts and two wrestling matches, and is to decide the championship of the fleet. The following program has been arranged:

Welterweight boxing match, between Dandel of the Maine and Collins of the Kentucky.

Featherweight, between Sanders of the Alabama, and Harris of the Kentucky.

Bantamweight, between Yordt of the Massachusetts, and Taylor of the Maine.

Lightweight, between Starr of the Kentucky, and Engleberg of the Kearsarge.

Wrestling Matches. Dandel of the Missouri and Collins of the Kentucky. The other matches will be arranged later.

How "All Men Are Born Equal."

The woman born beautiful doesn't bother to educate her intelligence, is spoiled by flattery, is unable to hold the men she attracts. The woman born homely is driven to develop her character and her mind, and so more than overcomes her handicap as against her pretty sister. The man born clever loses because he wins too easily and has no incentive to that sustained effort which alone achieves success. The man born "slow" develops patience, assiduity, balance and, best of all, tenacity.

It comes near to being a universal rule that strong points and weak ones just about offset each other in any human being at the start and that the development is a matter for the man himself to determine. And there is no fatal handicap except the disposition to regard one's handicap as fatal.—Saturday Evening Post.

Word Corruption.

"I lately heard," says a writer in P.'s London Weekly, "of a country inn which boasted for its sign, 'The Jackass.' Word corruption like this has given many quaint signs to our hostleries. Among the better known ones are 'The Goat and the Compass,' corrupted from the words, 'God encompasseth us'; 'The Bull and Mouth,' from 'the Boulogne mouth,' after the naval combat before Boulogne harbor, and 'The Pig and Whistle,' from 'the peg and wassail,' alluding to the pegs driven into the old wassail bowl to mark the point to which the toper might drink as his turn comes round. The sign, common in Lancashire, of the Stanley arms, an eagle carrying a child, is popularly referred to as 'The Bird of Bantling!'"

Marrying on Account.

Rev. Mr. Williams was the Congregational minister in the village of Winslow, Me., several years ago. One evening, says a correspondent of the Boston Globe, four young people called at the parsonage. Two of them wished to be married.

The papers in the case were legal, so Mr. Williams performed the ceremony. The other couple acted as bridesmaid and best man. The groom was the son of a well known man in the town, and as the happy couple were leaving the parsonage the young man whispered to Mr. Williams:

"Just charge it to father, parson. It will be all right."

Sunday Card Playing Laws.

There was a time when people in England were forbidden by law to play at cards, even in their own houses, on Sunday. In the royal proclamation against vice, profaneness and immorality, read every session and assize, is the following passage: "And we do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's day at dice, cards or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses or other places whatsoever."

Enlarged Finger Joints.

Enlarged finger joints are the source of annoyance and mortification. Sometimes they are caused by pulling the fingers to make the joints "crack." Sometimes they are the result of hard work, rheumatism or gout. They may be relieved by light rotary massage (rubbing around and around the joints with the thumb and fingers and stroking upward), accompanied by the application of oil of wintergreen.

ARTILLERY TO GO TO MANASSAS

THREE COMPANIES FROM FORT BARRANCAS WILL LEAVE FOR THAT PLACE.

Three of the companies of coast artillery stationed at Fort Barrancas, will leave to-night for Manassas, where the men will participate in the annual maneuvers to be conducted there by the army. The companies to leave here are the Seventh, Fifteenth and Twenty-second.

Preparations for the departure were completed yesterday and to-night the men will leave Pensacola in a number of special cars over the Louisville and Nashville. The number leaving here will be about three hundred, and they will be absent for several weeks.

TEXAS SHERIFF ASKED TO RESIGN

Hempstead, Texas, April 27.—At a meeting held here to-day Sheriff Lipscomb was asked to resign that a ranger might be appointed sheriff to execute the laws. The sheriff refused to resign, saying the resolution was a move of his enemies.

JAPANESE FORCES ROUTED BY CAVALRY.

By Associated Press. St. Petersburg, April 27.—General Linevich, in a telegram to the emperor dated April 26, reports a three hours' first on April 23 near Tsin-tziao, the Russian cavalry forcing the Japanese to retreat.

ADDRESSES BEFORE MUNICIPAL LEAGUE.

By Associated Press. New York, April 27.—Addresses were delivered before the National Municipal League meeting here to-day by Messrs. Frank J. Goodnow, John Martin and Dr. John B. Roberts. All directly pertained to the subject of municipal ownership.

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE

ARE DRAGGING OUT A TIRED, WEARY EXISTENCE.

Say Druggists, W. H. White & Co., Simply for the Want of a Little Strength and Vitality.

"Simply for the want of a little strength and vitality," said a member of W. H. White & Co., "there are millions of people in this world, and a large number right here in Pensacola, who are dragging themselves around half dead and half alive, and it hardly seems to them that life is worth living."

"I want to say to every such person, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver oil preparation, which is not a patent medicine, and you know what you are taking, as everything it contains is printed on the bottle."

"Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the curative, life-giving elements of cod liver oil, without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach. Vinol will purify and enrich the blood; invigorate every organ in the body and create strength as nothing else known to medicine can do."

"Mr. M. A. Cassidy, a prominent educator and superintendent of Schools, Lexington, Ky., writes: 'After using different tonics and cod liver oil preparations on the market, I find Vinol to be far superior to them all, and its strengthening properties are truly remarkable.'"

"Vinol has built up my system, strengthened my nerves—in fact, it has made a new man of me, enabling me to take up my work with renewed energy and vigor, and I heartily endorse Vinol as the best cod liver oil preparation and strength creator known."

"We ask every weak or aged person in Pensacola, every person who is run down, overworked, nervous or debilitated, and every one suffering from severe colds, hacking coughs and incipient consumption, to try Vinol on our guarantee to build them up and create strength and make life worth living. Vinol will cost nothing if it fails to give satisfaction; in such cases we give back the money without 'red tape.' W. H. White & Co., druggists."

DISTURBANCES ARE EXPECTED

MAYDAY DECIDED UPON FOR DEMONSTRATION BY RUSSIAN TERRORISTS.

By Associated Press. Warsaw, April 27.—All trains to the frontier are crowded and there is an unprecedented demand for passports which will be used in the event of serious disturbances at Easter or on May day. Shop owners and householders residing in the vicinity of the government alcohol shops have been anonymously notified to leave before May 1st, as the shops will then be blown up.

THE CRIMINAL SQUIRREL.

He Is a Thief and a Murderer and a Forest Destroyer.

I wish to take away for all time the character of the squirrel. He is a thief and a murderer. Admired by ignorant city people and by journalists, he devotes his life to eating the eggs and killing the young of harmless and useful birds, which, if permitted to live and increase, would protect the forests from harmful insects. By killing these birds the squirrel takes rank as a forest destroyer. Moreover, the red squirrel is not the only sinner. In my opinion the gray is almost, if not quite, as bad.

I have killed many squirrels caught in the act of eating eggs of young birds. Any bird that selects a nesting place which is also adapted to the use of squirrels is almost certain to be ejected. When a forest has been destroyed by fires, lumbermen or insects, it is almost impossible for natural reforestation to take place if squirrels are abundant in an adjoining tract, because they eat the seeds. Fifty seeds per head each day would be a low estimate. Yet even this would make 18,250 in a year. And seeds are not the only thing. In winter the ground is often strewn with twigs that have been stripped of buds by squirrels. The trees attacked are generally situated at the border of a dense forest and would, if left alone, yield the greatest seed crop. A single squirrel thus destroys in one day thousands of seeds in the germ. In Montana I have seen the grays rob birds' nests.—Country Life in America.

AN ASPHALT LAKE.

The Way the Stuff Is Mined and Prepared For Market.

The largest South American asphalt lake, in Venezuela, consists of a dark brownish deposit of semifluid and semisolid substance surrounded by banks from three to six feet high. In the center of this lake is a continual ejection of hot fluid asphalt, accompanied by large bubbles of gas.

The dark skinned workmen excavate it in pieces weighing in the neighborhood of twenty-five pounds; sections forty feet in area and about four feet deep being worked at one time. As quickly as freed from its surroundings it is placed in large tubs, resting upon small flat topped tram cars operated upon a narrow gauge road. The entire surface is constantly moving, thus necessitating a continual relaying of the trucks.

The freshly excavated asphalt is conveyed to the shore, where the tubs are lifted by hydraulic power to an aerial tramway, by which it is conveyed to the large wharf situated on the Guanero river, about five miles distant from the lake. Here it is weighed and dumped into vessels which convey it to the foreign lands.

Upon its arrival at a factory it is heated until the water is expelled and the earthy material cast to the bottom of the large vats, and it is poured through a sieve into barrels, where it solidifies. It is then ready for commerce.—New York Tribune.

Virtue's Quick Reward.

"Nothing ever better illustrated to me," remarked the doctor, "the old adage, 'Virtue is its own reward,' than an experience I had the other day. Called for the first time to a patient who was desperately ill in addition to being penniless, I gave him $5 with which to purchase the necessities of life. The next morning I received a note from her not to call again. Later I learned she had called in a homeopathic physician, to whom she paid a fee of $2, and with the remainder of my charitable contribution she paid a monthly installment on a phonograph."—New York Press.

What the Hand Symbolizes.

Look where we will, we find the hand in time and history, working, building, inventing, bringing civilization out of barbarism. The hand symbolizes power and the excellence of work. The mechanic's hand, the hand that hews, saws, cuts, builds, is useful in the world equally with the delicate hand that paints a wild flower or molds a Grecian urn or the hand of a statesman that writes a law. The eye cannot see the hand. "I have no need of thee." Blessed be the hand! Thrice blessed be the hands that work!—Helen Keller in Century.

Anecdote of Lewis Carroll.

Canon Liddon wrote this in his diary concerning an incident of a holiday tour he took with his friend, Charles L. Dodgson, better known as Lewis Carroll: "Dodgson was overcome by the beauty of Cologne cathedral. I found him leaning against the rails of the choir and sobbing like a child. When the verger came to show us over the chapel he got out of the way. He said that he could not bear the harsh voice of the man in the presence of so much beauty."

CITY COUNCIL WILL MEET

SESSION WILL BE HELD TO-DAY TO CONSIDER REPORT OF FRANCHISE COMMITTEE.

A special meeting of the City Council has been called for to-day at noon, when it is expected that a full attendance of members will be present. Notices sent out yesterday gave the wrong date, as the meeting is to be held at the city hall to-day at noon and all members are urged to be present.

The most important matter to be considered will be the report of the franchise committee regarding the transfer of the ordinance, granting a right of way to Hoke Smith and others. This ordinance was passed several months ago and has expired by limitation. There are a number of parties who desire to take up the franchise and build the road between Pensacola and Andalusia, and will give sufficient guarantee of their good intentions. It is expected that the transfer of the ordinance will be made by the council.

Mutilations.

That mutilation should ever have been adopted as a penalty by the Christian church one finds it difficult to believe, yet the ecclesiastical authorities indicated it for comparatively trivial offenses, and several councils emphatically attempted to suppress it. Thus the thirteenth canon of the council of Merida, in 686, deprived bishops and priests of the right of mutilating the servants of the church. The sixth canon of the council of Toledo, in 675, while forbidding bishops to exercise exclusive jurisdiction in offenses involving the capital penalty, also interdicted them from ordering mutilation of the limbs, even in the case of their own serfs, and ordained that bishops violating this law should be deposed, excommunicated and denied the last rites of the church when in articulo mortis. The eighteenth canon of the council of Frankfurt, in 794, forbade abbots to blind or mutilate their monks whatever might be the offense.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Fishing Frog.

The fishing frog buries himself in the mud and lies partly concealed in weeds, where, with his huge mouth open, he fishes for his dinner. On the back of his head there are three spines, the longest of which he bends forward in front of his mouth, gently swaying it in the water. At last it attracts a young fish, which makes a spring for the supposed worm, when—snap—the mouth is closed and Mr. Fishing Frog has had his dinner. The archer fish catches his dinner in quite a different way. Just out of his reach on the bank of a plant growing on the river's brink rests a fly, basking in the sunlight. Suddenly a little stream of water strikes it; it loses its balance and falls, only to be caught by the cunning little archer below.—Field and Stream.

The Earliest Mummies.

Mummification is derived from the Danish mummy, a mask, disguise, and took its origin from the ancient Roman Saturnalia. In early English times it was the custom to indulge in burlesque sports after dinner on Christmas day, when masked performers, called mummers, would disport before the assembled guests. This custom is still kept up in some parts of England, especially in Northamptonshire, where the villagers go about during the Christmas holidays from house to house, personating several ridiculous characters in their mock play.

Beliefs About Waves.

The Persians believe that the waves of the Persian gulf are caused by air entering caves which have subterranean outlets under the ocean. One of the most curious beliefs of all—one closely akin to a certain ancient oriental hell belief—is that of the south sea islanders. According to their notion, the rolling of the sea is caused by a "thunder god." In old times this "thunder god" killed the chief deity of the islands and was confined under the ocean as a punishment. His rolling with rage causes the waves.

A Thoughtful Empress.

One evening Catherine II. of Russia had dined in one town and was to return to her palace in another some miles distant. These journeys were made with much ceremony and magnificence. The great sleighs were ready to start for home. Catherine sat alone in the imperial sleigh. She inquired if the drivers and the footmen had had dinner. Receiving a negative reply, she at once left her sleigh. "They have as much need of dinner as we," she said to her party. And she waited patiently until the servants had dined.

Not Precipitate.

Cholly—It was the first time I'd met Crabbe, mind you, and he actually called me a fool. Hadn't been talking to him ten minutes, don't you know. What sort of fellow is he, anyway? Miss Pepprey—Well, he's awfully slow, for one thing.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Indirect Action.

Hix—Did that trip to Europe relieve your mind of your family troubles? Dix—Indirectly, yes; it emptied my pocketbook so successfully that I was obliged to take my mind off my family for awhile to replenish it.—Detroit Free Press.

On the Pullman.

"Let's get out at the next station and stretch our legs." "Oh, leave that to the porter."—Cleveland Leader.

DR. FENNER'S Kidney Backache Cure

AND
Cured of Backache.

Also Purifies the Blood.

Don't become discouraged. There is a cure for you. If necessary write Dr. Fenner. He has spent a lifetime curing just such cases as yours. All consultations FREE.

Member of the Business Men's League and one of the best known business men in St. Louis, Mo. Read what Mr. Wand has to say about Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure:

"I know what it is to be afflicted with backache and I sympathize with fellow sufferers. After swallowing various and frequent nauseating doses of this and that prescription I decided that if Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure could not rid me of those backaches it at least would not do me any harm and I procured a bottle.

"Now the first bottle didn't stop those wearing backaches, but it did afford me great relief. The second bottle, however, did effectually put a stop to those racking backaches. Occasionally they returned when strenuous business affairs exhausted the physical forces, but a dose or two of Dr. Fenner's Cure gave instant relief.
